“ Very sad to hear about Al. We worked many years together at Maidstone, we all knew of his love for antique hand tools, and he knew how to use them. God bless Al and his family.

“ I appreciated Alan, especially the blessing he gave me at the mental ward. And you, Charon, have been a most special lady yourself. The way that you two have hung in there together during this most stressful and difficult of times. Working through this trial without giving up, I have such admiration. You two have been such an example. And as the hymn said - "I can" Much love and Sympathy, and Gratefulness.
