“ I am so sorry for your families loss. Alan had become a very dear friend over the last few years. He was a patient in our clinic. Alan always had a smile on his face and wonderful stories to tell. This has truly affected all of us and will so miss getting to visit with him. Rest easy my dear sweet friend...

“ Sorry for your loss. Alan was ALWAYS good to me from the first time I met him close to twenty years ago. He had a heart of gold and had faith in god. I know he was welcomed into gods kingdom with an eternal life in heaven. He will no longer have any worries, only joy! He will be missed. See you when I get there buddy. Larry wine
