“ To the Callicutt Family: I offer my deepest condolences during your time of loss, and I would like to share a scripture to bring your household peace, found at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement. Again my sincere condolences.
