“ Allison always greeted me with a smile and laugh. I didn't know her personally, but she had an effect on me. She commanded a room and you not only immediately respected her, but wanted to know more about her. What a star. What a loss. Rest In Peace dear Allison. I will drink Burnette's cherry vodka in your honor and never forget you.

“ I remember Allison as a beautiful and talented young lady at PMMS. Allison and my son performed in The King and I, where she sang and did a phenomenal job. I remember one comment from an attendee, that they couldn't believe that Allison was a middle schooler. She was very talented. I know she will be missed by her friends and family. All my love to the family in this time of great loss.

“ There are no words that can eliminate the pain and suffering of the loss of a loved one, but we can undoubtedly be joyous in the remembrance of such an amazing woman. Allison, the fearless amazon goddess. She overcame countless challenges and she did it with style. Her diva voice could make your jaw drop. The way she entertained on and off stage would always bring the room to laughter. It breaks my heart to have not gotten to spend more time catching up with her and reminiscing about childhood memories. To the Lawhorne family, you have always been so kind and generous to me and Allison's friends. Thank you for all that you did for us growing up and sharing with us your wonderful daughter. You have my love and my prays always.

“ I grew up with Allison and graduated with her. She was a great person with a big heart. While we still talked over Facebook occasionally, I'm sorry I lost touch with her over the years after high school. The world will be a sadder place without her beautiful smile lighting up the room. 😞?
