“ Angela and I were classmates since we first started school and graduated from Central High School in 1975. I loved her beautiful red hair and will never forget her. I'm so very sorry and saddened to learn of her passing. She fought so bravely. Please accept my sincere condolences. ❤️

“ Shocked to read of your passing. Unbelievable.. You would come to hang out at our home in Columbia Furnace. You came to give a helping hand after complications from childbirth.. After moving away from Virginia we lost contact, then one day my phone rang, so surprised to hear your voice. I will miss all your scriptures, pictures. Soar with Jesus and Heavens angels my friend.
