“ We have been thinking and reminiscing so much about how much Arch has meant to us since we moved to the community in 1978—remembering how often Arch and Elva helped us out with one thing or another over the years. Goodness knows, Archie helped pulled John’s tractor out of the mud more than once.

John was remembering coming home from the hospital early in the morning right after Austin was born and when he saw lights on at the Hockmans’ house, he stopped to tell them the exciting news that we had a new baby boy. They were the first ones to get the news.

And I can’t even count the number of times over the years that Arch showed up at our door with vegetables from his garden. He was the kind of person you knew you could count on if you needed him.

So many of those kinds of things are why we’ll miss him so much. His passing is the end of an era in this community.

We are lifting your whole family up in prayer for comfort, peace, and happy memories.
