“ I got so lucky to have Ashely to become a friend! We went through a roughly time, but Ashley and I were there for each other. If I was down or having a hard time, Ashley was there to listen to me and make me laugh and feel better. Sadly I hadn't got to talk to her in a while and then had no idea she was gone. I just found out and I'm still trying to process it. And I don't have Ashley to talk to. I love you Ashley and miss you! But I know that you are there looking over me and saying she is going to kick my but to get going.

“ Ash you're my best friend. I love you and miss you with all my heart and soul. I've said it before but you were my soulmate. I've spoken to you everyday that we've known each other. The nights we stayed up for hours and talked about the most random things will be some of my best memories. I will cherish our time together. I feel blessed to even have known you for a moment. You've changed me for the better. What will I do with out my obnoxious, loud, sweet , beautiful friend? I love you Ash.
