“ My first memory of my cousin Atville was that Burt Reynolds was hunting with my dad and brothers, and my mom laughing at me and explaining to me who Atville was I was so embarrassed. Atville always was a kindhearted person, with a friendly smile and willing to help anyone. God bless his family and comfort them in this time of great sorrow he is truly missed and loved by all those who knew him until we see you again my dear cousin and brother in Christ we will never forget you, we love you always your cousins George and Trudy Mckenzie iii
