

Audrey Tamkin

December 17, 2017

Audrey Beverly Tamkin (Hubscher) passed away very peacefully in her sleep after illness on December 17, 2017. She is survived by two sons, Wayne Berlin Jr. and Glenn Scott, and her daughter-in-law, Gretchen Cope Weinbach. In addition to being the best mom ever, Audrey had a strong love for her extended family, including each of her seven very special brothers and sisters. Between taking care of others, she traveled the roads between Maryland and the Shenandoah Valley on the antiques and auction circuit. She also belonged to the Women of the Moose #1865 American Legion Auxiliary and enjoyed country music ballads. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, December 20, 11:00 a.m. at Dellinger Funeral Home, 159 N. Main Street, Woodstock, VA. 22664. Reverend Stephanie Heishman-Litten will officiate. Interment will follow at Massanutten Cemetery, and all are invited for lunch after the services. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

JR

“ What a dear sweet woman and super fun Aunt aka "Cord 2" was. I will forever have so many fond memories of her from our times in the Bahamas, Ocean City and several trips to play bingo. Not only was she a thoughtful loving Aunt, she was a wonderful sister to my mom, #8. I'm happy that I could see her giggle in her final days and I will miss her dearly.

Julie Boone Roth - December 23, 2017 at 12:00 AM

LT

“ Dear Wayne and Glenn, It has been quite some time since I saw Wayne and Audrey. My memories go back to when they were a couple at TAMKIN Family reunions. I always thought they were very devoted. Please accept my condolences for the loss of your mother. Remember Audrey as a very nice lady. Know you have very fond memories. With sympathy. Don "Donnie" Tamkin

Lewis "Donnie" Tamkin - December 19, 2017 at 12:00 AM