“ I got to know Betty and Orville when I lived next door to them in Orkney. They were so wonderful to me. Betty was the loveliest of ladies and she will always have a special place in my heart. RIP dear friend. With great love, Peggy Vaughan

“ So sad to learn of your passing Betty. God has himself another wonderful angel by his side. Enjoy seeing your family and friends that have preceded you in the resurrection into Jesus Christ.

“ I'm so sad to hear of Betty's passing. When I was a little girl and Betty and Orville lived across the road from Boyd's, my grandfather Byrd Moomaw, and I would go visit them often. I would be at my grandparents house almost every summer when I was younger. They had a dog named Rover that I was so fond of. We would all just sit around the porch and Orville, Betty and granddaddy would tell stories from way back when. Betty was instrumental in helping me track down all of the Barb's and Goode's when my mother died and I had to offer her house to all Becky's (her mom's) relatives first. I got to visit her many times whenever I was in Orkney. I always loved our visits and her stories from the past. She let us park on her yard whenever there was a concert we wanted to attend. Since my mom passed (Frances Ritenour), I haven't been back to Orkney much, but I did get the chance to visit her in the Nursing Home a few times. She was a sweet, genuine lady and I will miss her, until I see her again. Rest in peace Betty.

“ So sad to learn that my sweet Aunt Betty has passed away. Have wonderful memories of visiting Orkney Springs as a child and as an adult talking with Aunt Betty about the amazing journey of her life. My granddaughter interviewed her for her women's studies class in college and was astounded to learn of the life experiences of her and Grandma Becky. Will miss her always. Rest in Peace. Your niece Janice
