“ I only knew “miss Beverley “ for a short amount of time while I cared for her in her home. She always enjoyed sharing stories of her husband and herself, everywhere they lived together and the adventures they had . I will miss her and always remember she loved blueberry bagels but didn't like strawberries . We never have a chance to go to the ice cream stand together but I will cherish every memory I have with her, she taught me how to be a better caregiver, friend and listener . She will be deeply missed .
