“ Love you mom! I'm sure everyone understood! All of you children did a wonderful job and it's very difficult to prepare for a moment such as this during of grief! I miss my Memaw every day since her passing! She taught me so much about the lord and how to be a follower of Jesus Christ! Even if it did take trips to McDonald's after church. One thing is for sure no one has to wonder what the dash in between her birth date and her date of death mean because she left a wonderful legacy for her family to remember and for that reason her love will remain strong in this family and her roots will grow steadfast! Love to all my aunts, uncles, cousins, siblings and many more! ??????

My Sister Callista named after my Mother's life long dearest friend and known by us Cooney gals as "Kissy". She is dearly missed and the biggest contributor to our large family of many Members today. She always had love in her heart for God & family & was very special to all of us. I shall miss her dearly, for she was a gentle Soul a good companion to all of us & won most games of dice that we played with family, no $$ involved just tons of laughter & joyful love. I will be missing you so much my sweet Sister "Kissy" love you beyond forever more, save a place for me, until we meet again one day. I am the last of the Mohigans as we used to call ourselves, a great loving family. God bless all her children & family here. Love all of you, Aunt Gracie

“ To my dear cousins, You have been traveling along the journey that your fellow cousins have taken who have lost their dear cooney mothers. It is a journey that takes enormous amount of strength while trying to understand and accept the plan that God has laid out. I know your hearts are broken for mine is still broken from the loss of my mother. I was so thankful your mother and her sisters were there when my mother pass away. She loved her sister Callista and look forward to her visits in Va Beach where they would play games and share many laughs and memories together. We will miss you dear Aunt Callista. We send our healing thoughts and prayers to all of you in hopes you will feel comfort in knowing that your Mother is at peace and in the loving hugs of the cooney angels. I pray your broken hearts will heal with time.

“ My dearest cousins, Love lives longer than the grief of pain in our hearts. All other things pass but the love we have for our dearest, Kissy, will remain steadfast. This is a bond that nothing can sever because love lasts forever. My fondest memories of your mother was when I was very young and she was my babysitter. They had to tie me to the cloths line to keep me from running away, and of course that "joyful smile." My deepest sympathy and know all of you are in my prayers.
