“ Cameron, you left this world too soon, and the Marine Corps lost a Brother and a friend. I enjoyed the years spent at MCAS, New River in Jacksonville, NC. You were a good Marine, happy-go-lucky clerk, and a sometimes great softball player. Though my years in this world far exceed yours, you were always an inspiration to those who new you and spent time with you as well. We watched each other get those "Dericious" hits in softball as we played with great enthusiasm. You were like a son to me, and words cannot express the sadness I have in my heart right now. You will always be with me ...for your friendship touched my heart, and that's where I will keep your memory alive. Semper Fi Marine!! OOHRAH ATTACK!!
