“ I am very sorry to hear about your loss. Please accept my deepest condolences. Isaiah 25:8 promises a time when 'death will be swallowed up forever' and God 'will wipe the tears from all faces.' May he provide you with the comfort and strength needed at this time.

“ We were fortunate to have come across Mr. Gochenour when we bought a small farm on Back Road in 1974. Installing an electric fence around our pond, regularly liming and mowing the fields, plowing our garden, dumping loads of fertilizer, and keeping an eye on the place when we weren't there are just some of what he did for us. I know that we did not worry about the farm when we weren't there because in the back of our minds we knew he was. Although we are spread out--Ottawa, Ontario; New York City; Chevy Chase and Silver Spring, Maryland; Boston; San Diego, CA; Crozet, Arlington, and Richmond, Virginia--Carroll Gochenour has a cherished place in the hearts and memories of the McKnights, Bohrs, and Parsons.
