“ Donna and family; we were saddened and sorry to learn of Charlie's passing. He was such a faithful servant to God and both a wonderful father and husband to you and your family. We do rejoice that he is free from pain, his joy is complete, and he has no more earthly cares as he is living in God's glory. God's promises are so comforting at times such as these. We were both blessed and honored to be Charlie's friend and brother in Christ. We'll drop by soon this summer to visit. daryl and carol

“ My Dearest Donna and family, I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved husband/father. The closeness you all shared always displayed love for HIS Glory. Over the years, I have watched the family grow (via Donna's photos and messages shared) with much affection towards one another. Though I never met Charley, I know that he was a loving, godly father who remained active in his family as a Husband, father, and granddad. He has left a beautiful family and a godly legacy for his family to always cherish. Father Abba has called him home, and in your hearts and thoughts his memories will remain. He has finished the race and the battle was won in Christ, for he is now the arms of Jesus; celebrating HIM and having salvation. My love and prayers for HIS peace, Your Sister-in- Christ, Pam Miller (Idaho)

“ I only met Charley a couple of times, but knew him as a wonderful quiet guy with a really sharp sense of humor who truly loved our Saviour Jesus. While he is in Heaven giving Gabriel pointers on playing the horn, we are missing him, but he will live on in all of our hearts and memories. He ran the race and finished victorious

“ Charlie will be remembered as a fun and interesting young man growing up in the "burg" as well as a friend and loyal hard working co-worker in Richmond. As our lives went in different directions, his obit. attests to his character and achievements, to be admired. Bev shared recently he fought a valiant battle with cancer, it's obvious our Lord has wrapped his arms around all those he graciously touched. God blessed you Charlie, now you may rest in peace. “ Charley was a man with great moral character. He was always willing and determined to perform his job to the best of his ability. I feel blessed that I had the opportunity to work with Charley for 35 years. Charley will be missed by all of us at Mtn. View Rendering. The joy he brought to us every day will always be remembered. Our condolences to his family.
