

Charles Franklin (Frankie) Clinedinst

June 3, 1945 - September 5, 2014

Charles Franklin (Frankie) Clinedinst, 69, of Edinburg passed away Friday at his home. He was born June 3, 1945 son of the late Issac Edward Clinedinst, Sr. and Frances Hottinger Clinedinst. Surviving wife; Jo Ann Clinedinst, daughters; Kim Ryman, Strasburg, Judy Baker, Woodstock, sons; J.R. Clinedinst, Strasburg, Kevin Brill, W.VA., Sister; Shirley Jenkins, Mt. Jackson, Brothers; Issac Clinedinst, Jr., Edinburg, Larry Clinedinst, Mt. Jackson, William Clinedinst, Edinburg, and 10 grandchildren. He was preceded by sister, Anna Rush. He was member of the Walker's Chapel Church of the Brethren. A memorial service will be conducted Tuesday, 6 p.m. Valley Funeral Chapel, Bowmans Crossing by Roy Marshall. The family will receive friends 1 hour prior to service. Memorial contributions can be made to Alzheimer's Association, 240 Deyerle Ave. St. 102, Harrisonburg, VA. 22801 or contribute to his burial fund, 14116 S. Middle Rd., Edinburg, VA. 22824

Tribute Wall

“ Charles Franklin (Frankie) Clinedinst

January 30, 2023 at 03:03 AM

“ Charles Franklin (Frankie) Clinedinst

January 30, 2023 at 12:44 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss, I grew up around the family and Frankie always had something kind to say to anyone he met up with, and he always had a smile on his face. He is with his family in heaven and pain free but he will be missed by this family and friends. Praying for the family. Joan (Clem) Burger.

Joan (CLEM) Burger - September 17, 2014 at 01:56 PM

“ Tanya Jenkins lit a candle in memory of Charles Franklin (Frankie) Clinedinst

Tanya jenkins - September 16, 2014 at 11:47 AM

“ He was a great person and lived life to its fullest. Prayers to family and friends. I am blessed to be one of the people who was his friend. Will miss him. prayers Tammy sue

Tammy Rickard - September 16, 2014 at 10:46 AM