“ I grew up with Sonny & Larry. Sonny & my brother was the same age and Larry and I was the same age. We all use to terrorize North Main Street 65 years ago. I have been gone for over 52 years and haven't seen Sonny since. The family has my deepest sympathy and prayers at this time.

We moved Out of the area five years ago. We attended Mt. Clifton church with Carolyn and Sonny. We don't always hear what is going on there anymore. Sonny was a great guy with a personality and sense of humor no one could miss. Prayers for Carolyn for her loss. She is one of the most dedicated women to her church and community I have ever met in my life. Prayers for all her family. God Bless.
