“ Charlie and Arlene were our first Sunday School teachers at Providence Baptist Church where they were active members for a lot of years. We will always have such fond memories of Charlie as he loved and respected the Lord so much and made others respect also.
Love always to the family.

“ We were blessed to know Charlie and benefit from his wisdom and Biblical knowledge. The last time we saw Charlie we were able to hold hands and pray for him. The next time we see Charlie there will be no need for prayer! We do lift up Arlene and family in prayer for comfort and peace.

“ Charlie and Arlene were wonderful mentors to us. They even shared their home with us when our first home was delayed in construction. There are no words to describe this sweet man. Heaven will be even more interesting with its newest resident. ❤️❤️
