“ I am Charles niece, I remember him as a child growing up with his son and daughter Brenda. We had so many good summers visiting one another as children. At the home place in Edinburg, Va. Which his brother Donald and family we grew up around corner on Stony Creek. This is a sad time for the family. Sad to say this is life and it is unpleasant. But it is great to share these memories that we shared over those years. As Charlie moved on in his life and moved away his legend never died at the Bowling alley in Winchester, Va. I remember he was a famous Bowler and did that for competition. Year ago when I was in the Winchester Bowling Alley I was so proud of him with all of his awards. So I hope everyone remembers him. Uncle Charlie was a great man.
