“ In my job you meet and take care of many people but there are a few that you become attached too. Mr Sherman was and will always be my favorite. I loved his humor and how he never complained. He loved to laugh and if you were having a bad day and Charlie was a patient, you knew you could go to his room for a laugh and some good talks. My thoughts and prayers go out to his sweet family and many many friends. A sweet soul that will be missed forever.
