

Charles Joseph (Joe) Sibert

September 26, 1946 - January 10, 2025

The staff of Heishman Funeral Home/Valley Funeral Service sends condolences to the family of Charles Joseph (Joe) Sibert.

Charles Joseph (Joe) Sibert, 78, of Woodstock, passed away Friday, January 10, 2025, at his home. Services will be private.

Mr. Sibert was born September 26, 1946, in Shenandoah County, son of the late James Burner (Jim) Sibert and Geraldine Virginia Crisman (Jerry) Sibert. He was a 1964 graduate of Central High School and retired TSGT with United States Airforce. He was a member and retired sexton of St. Paul's United Church of Christ in Woodstock. He was preceded in death by three brothers, James R. (Dick) Sibert and his wife, Barbara, Gary A. Sibert and Benjamin Sibert.

Joe is survived by four brothers, Thomas L. (Tom) Sibert and the late Lucille Sibert, William L. (Bill) Sibert and the late Janet Sibert, Gerald E. (Skeeter) Sibert and Diane, and Michael G. (Sibert) and Barbara; sister-in-law, Pennie Sibert (widow of Gary); and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to a charity of choice.

Online condolences may be left at www.valleyfs.com

Arrangements by Heishman Funeral Home Inc., Valley Funeral Service Branch, Edinburg.

Tribute Wall

CF

“ Carolyn Foyle lit a candle in memory of Charles Sibert

Carolyn Foyle - January 14, 2025 at 11:43 PM

FP

“ Joe was a classmate and good friend. He served his country proudly. RIP my friend.

FRANK F PAINTER - January 14, 2025 at 03:30 PM

GB

“ Gwen Brown purchased the Simply Elegant Spat hiphyllum for the family of Charles Joseph (Joe) Sibert.

Gwen Brown - January 13, 2025 at 04:59 PM