Mr. Whitfield was a Real Estate Agent and broker for many years, a member of Abba's House At My Church. Though in his ninth decade, Charlie never lost his wit, curiosity or relentless independence. He was never a passive observer of life's events, as anyone who knew him could attest. From his youthful days as a Georgia farm-boy to his title of great-grandfather, there are none that could ever accuse Charlie of begin dull. He was a dancer, a writer, a friend, a provocateur, a poet, a believer, an arguer, a brother, a husband, a father, a grandfather and a great many other things that probably shouldn't be printed. Mostly he was a man who loved life. He is deeply loved and deeply missed and was a genuine one-of-a-kind. Surviving are 2 daughters; Jane W. Shepard of Fairfax, VA, Mary W. Tobin of Clifton, VA, Son; Charles R. Whitfield of Madison, VA, 2 half-sister; Peggy Walden and Sylvia Collins both of Cario, GA, 2 brothers; Hubert Whitfield of Colonial Heights, VA, Carroll Whitfield of Tifton, GA, 4 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren.
