family:"Calibri", "sans-serif";} God has called you, "Clayton Lee Stout" to his everlasting glory with Christ. Clayton Lee Stout 73 of Strasburg died at his home Thursday, May 16, 2013. A funeral service will be held on Monday, May 20, 2013, 2:00 pm at the Dellinger Funeral Home, Woodstock by Rev. Paul Campbell. Burial will follow at Cedarwood Cemetery, Edinburg. Mr. Stout was born December 27, 1939 at Fort Valley, Virginia. He was the son of the late Harvey Lee and Edith May Burner Stout. He was a graduate of Edinburg High School, class of 1959, a veteran of the United States Air Force, and a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Strasburg. Mr. Stout retired from the Norfolk and Southern Railroad with a perfect safety record after 31 ½ years as a Carman. Clayton was a loving and caring father and will be remembered as a kind and gentle man. He will be sadly missed by his family and friends. He is survived by his wife Polly Stout of Strasburg; two daughters, Teresa McKelvey of Strasburg and Lisa Vann of Pasadena, MD; two grandchildren, Kingston Ruffner and John Trey Seibel, III; an aunt, Jane Chrisman of Woodstock; numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. The family will receive friends

Sunday evening at the Dellinger Funeral Home, Woodstock from 6 to 8 pm. Honorary Pallbearers will be the Class of ""59"" of Edinburg High School and Railroad employees. The family requests that memorial contributions be made to Blue Ridge Hospice, 333 W. Cork Street, Winchester, VA 22601 or Relay for Life, Shenandoah Hope, c/o Kitty Miller, 234 S. Massanutten Street, Strasburg, VA 22657.

“ I'm a retired engineer (born in Strasburg) with 45 years of railroading, I worked a lot with Clayton, and he was a great person to work with. He was easy going, never put anyone down, got along with everyone and was well thought of by all his fellow workers. He will be greatly missed. Our daughter, Tina (Simon) Kern says she remembers Teresa at Strasburg High, and sends her condolences as well.
