“ I 'd like to share some of my "best friend" memories of Cindy. Me and my two brothers shared tricycles, scary Halloween forays into the neighborhood and schoolbus rides on bus #40 with my Mom, Betty Jo at the wheel with Cindy and her siblings. We thrived in the love and community of family and friends. I imagine she must have felt the comfort of living in the grace of great, caring people most of her adult life. I am blessed with these childhood memories and send my prayers of comfort to her Virginia family.
