“ I spent a lot of time with Cindy in the last 5 years - mainly via phone - and we had some long, deep discussions. I will miss her so much. I don't know Josh that much but her daughter has a special place in my heart - right along with Cindy. May the Lord bless Cindy and her family.

“ Cindy was nice person, haven't seen her in a long time since she left FI, thought about her a lot but I couldn't find her number. I was so surprised and Sad when David Knafel told me that she was in the hospital and not doing good. I thought she was very nice person and fun to be around, we we're pregnant together with our first daughters. I wish her and her family the best and May God Bless you all for losing her, but she's watching over you ever step you take. Fly high Cindy you've gone home where there is no sorrow or pain.
