

Dallas Lee Lunceford

May 22, 1938 - February 2, 2021

Retired Owner/Operator, Beltway Mobil/Sunoco Dallas Lee Lunceford, 82, retired owner/operator of Beltway Mobil/Sunoco in Annandale, VA, died February 2, 2021 from complications of dementia. A resident of Maurertown, Va., Lunceford was born May 22, 1938 in Alexandria, Va., and spent most of his adult life in Annandale outside of Washington, D.C. He retired to the Shenandoah Valley in 2015 to ride around on his tractor mowing grass and enjoy a slower paced mountain and river life. Lunceford dropped out of secondary school before graduation, and worked at Eastern Airlines before moving from Alexandria in 1968 to open the Beltway Mobil service station. Throughout the next 40 years, ""Bo"" Lunceford's service station was a fixture in town, providing auto repair, gas, towing and other services, as well as support for the community by sponsoring little league teams, driving floats for school/town parades, and supporting local charities. Lunceford was a past-Master of Elmer Timberman Masonic Lodge No. 54 in Annandale, Va., and was active in numerous related masonic organizations including the Kena Shriners. He was a member of both the Antique Car Club and Motor Corps, participating in related competitions nationwide, and winning trophies for skill-riding Harley Davidson Ultra's as part of the Parade and Precision Drill team. He also won car show awards for various restored antique cars, including his beloved 1951 Lincoln Continental. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge #575, Woodstock, Va. Lunceford not only enjoyed competing with his motorcycles, he took numerous cross-country bike trips with friends to Harley-enthusiast gatherings in Sturgis, SD, as well as a once-in-a-lifetime drive through some of the nation's most beautiful landscapes in a trip from Virginia to Alaska and back. He was an avid fisherman who enjoyed catching them more than eating them. Lunceford was married twice, first to Joyace Lea (Hurley) Lunceford, who passed from a ruptured brain aneurysm, then to RoseAnn (Brown) Lunceford. Lunceford is survived by his wife of 55 years, RoseAnn, his sons Stephen (Marianne) and Scott, and his grandchildren Allie and Chris. He is also survived by his sister, Janet Simmons of Springfield, Va., as well as 17 nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be planned for a later date, and the family's online remembrance page may be viewed and signed at dellingerfuneralhome.com. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Shriners Children's Hospital at <https://donate.lovetotherescue.org/fundraiser/3120134> Events Details are pending.

“ Our Uncle Bo. Dearly loved by so many and such a genuine man. He loved and was devoted to his family and friends with all his heart. He was totally unselfish and loved to give a helping hand or anything else he could to anyone in need, day or night. If he came across something he thought was cool or useful, he'd buy extras to give away 😊. He had tremendous unstoppable work ethic and didn't do well with idle time on his hands. He was fully dedicated to the causes he believed in. The legacy he built with his involvement in Shriners, his car club and motorcycle clubs will live on forever. So many memories and grateful hearts. Uncle Bo always found something to keep himself busy, for better or worse. And you always knew where he stood on matters. As he would say whatever he thought, lol. His laughter, his voice, his being, hold a special place in our family's lives forever. If you knew Uncle Bo at all, you know how much he loved people and never met a stranger. He was mischievous and a bit of a little prankster. He also loved a good tease or joke and pulled some doozies himself(all in fun) 😊😂. Oh yeah, and a back scratch on occasion put a smile on his face. Oh yes, there are many sad hearts sharing this huge loss. Countless memories for us all to hold. Please make peace with your Lord if you haven't yet. Our precious Uncle Bo, we love you eternally and we will see you again 🌈❤️💚💙💜-Clarinda

“ My Uncle Bo was a good man, one in a million. Always looked up to him...literally cause he was a tall guy! and really appreciated all his stories he had to tell. As a kid growing up I have awesome memories of going to see Aunt Rosie and Uncle Bo at there house and the gas station. It was always a good memory when going to see them. Loved how he used to pick and joke around. Felt like it helped me prepare for the world so to speak. He was a such a good role model and had loads of character. He had a hand in helping me become who I am today. Between working on cars which is what I do for a living to being a deadskins fan haha..... I mean Redskins fan. So many wonderful memories that he gave all of us. I will always remember my Uncle Bo and I know y'all will too. Rest in piece man.

“ I lived in Annandale in the 90s and would visit his garage to get my annual state inspection done. Bo knew I was a cop and would ask if I had checked everything myself before bringing it to the garage. When I answered "Yes" he would skip the checks and affix the new sticker for free. I recall many long talks with him at the garage. I was a bit intimidated by him by the way he carried himself and how confident he was. He seemed to really love us cops stopping in to see him and he will forever live in my memories. Every time I drive by the gas station... I can't help but think about him and how great of a man he was. I imagine he likely touched the lives of a great many people over the years. I am so happy to have known him.

“ *"What a Guy". Bo was indeed a very kind man with a heart of gold. You always knew where you stood with Bo as he was not bashful. He touched the lives of so many people at the service station and in Masonry and the Shrine. We will always remember the picnics at his home in the Shenandoah Valley and the Kena Car Club X-Mas parties. It is hard to imagine the Kena Car Club without Bo. He will truly be missed. “ He was an amazing man. He left a positive impression on everyone he met. My biggest memory is how we could you take him anywhere and he may not have known anyone where we went, but he would before we left. He was a people person. He was kind and enjoyed talking to people. He would talk to anyone that would listen. He loved his family and his best friend Charlie. He reminded me of my father and in a way stepped in to his shoes when my father passed. Bo was an amazing "unofficial father-in-law" and I will miss him greatly. RIP Bo. I love you! See you on the other side...

“ Dear Roseann, Steven, Mary Ann and children...and Scott. Please accept our heartfelt condolences...in the loss of your Husband...Father... Father-in-law and Grandfather, Beau liked to tease...and as backyard neighbors...just a fence apart...and being as tall as he was...he'd stand near the fence...look over it...and proceed to tell me... that the neighborhood was going downhill...as it had too many Italians living on Bev. Man Dr....so I'd remind him...that the best thing he ever did...was to marry me. He'd go away with a laugh...and it was always in good fun. Our boys were friends...and looking back...those were the happy years. I know I thanked him...but I wonder if he ever realized...just how grateful I was to him...for driving my Sal to the ER...when he was up at the station...having an appendicitis attack...while we were still on the road...coming back from my Dad's NY funeral...and hadn't arrived back in VA yet. Beau saw that Sal was in terrible pain...and he got him the help he needed. Much later on...after what happened to my son...whenever Beau would see me...he would in his own way...let me know...how badly he felt for us...and how he too missed Sal. Beau was a force to be reckoned with...but he was also a bigger softie than he led on to be. I pray that he is now resting in God's perpetual light...and that he is at peace. God Bless Him...He will be missed and not forgotten by us. With Our Deepest Sympathy and Prayers...as you all go through this sad and difficult time.

“ Scott, Cindy and Family, Sounds like your Dad lived an amazing and full life. I'm sure there's plenty of room in Heaven for Harleys, antique Lincolns and tractors. And we know there are great fishermen there. My condolences and prayers.

“ RoseAnn, This is so hard for me to imagine he's watching out with Steve and picking on us. But we know them both, yup he's having fun with Steve. I know there are no real words that can help you and the family but I love you all and will be sending prayers daily to help you and the family. I love you all. I wish we could get together and share memories but it's ruff times. Soon!! Cindy “ RoseAnn, Steve, and Scott, I'm so sorry I'm not there for you right now. Dementia sucks! Most people would have been offended by the presentation of a witch's broom but mine is special with reins and saddlebags! The boys in the Troop look forward to it each Halloween. Love and miss you all.
