“ Karen and Debra's Sister and Brothers We at Liberty Truck Stop are sorry to hear of Debbie's passing. Our prayers are with you all. Debbie was the freind, c0-worker, and most of all a person who cared so much about everyone, that anyone could have know in this world. She touched so many people hearts at the truck stop there wasn't a day that went bye in the last three years that a driver was not asking how debbie was doing. Debbie was so full of life all the time, making people laugh with her always telling them" just get over it..." when they had some problem. We were all so lucky to have know her. May God bless you all as he take Debbie into heaven with open arms, so she watch over all of us who were so lucky to have known her. God's speed Debra we will always remember you and will miss you.
