“ Debbie was always so sweet and also had that winning smile which bright our day every at work. She went out of her way to ensure we were all taken care at work. I enjoyed our very early morning chat. I am bless to have had the honor to meet and work with her. I miss you Debbie. My prayers are with the Fleming family. Thank you for sharing Debbie with her work family. Ledia

“ No matter how sick she always tried to put a smile on and this was the last time that we were able to sit at the table and paint and draw together it wasn't too long afterwards that cancer overtook her completely. She fought long and she fought hard and I've never known a stronger person in my life and my mom I love her to the Moon and back and I miss her so so much
