“ Jay was one of the neatest & cleanest Men I knew. You could have ate off of the floor of his truck. Was fast with a come back & great personality. He was so particular with his yard so Wade and myself had to sabotage this bushes with spider webs. Wow ...if you only y'all knew what He said about that & who did It. It was all in Fun ...Jay will be missed very much.As I recall how Jay lived in this earth I can only imagine how his Manison will look. My condolences & Prayer to the Family & Friends.
