I grew up with Dewey. I was his aunt but he was 3 months older than me! When people say he was a gentle soul, that is so very true. Dewey loved his wife and daughter more than life. I can't think of a soul that didn't like him. The Lord saw his suffering and healed him. I ask all who loved him to keep his wife and daughter in prayer. They will need help in this transition. God Bless you Dewey and rest now from your labors.
