“ I am heartbroken by the loss of my lifetime friend, Diana. She always put others first, and her kindness touched many lives. Diana was integral in keeping events going for our BHS Class of 1966, and she never missed an event. I last saw her and Jean at the Nothin Fancy Bluegrass Festival, in September, and as we were parting, she said, “Well, give me a hug.” It was a sweet memory that I will always hold dear. My sincerest condolences to your family. She loved you deeply, and I understand the sadness you are bearing. Peace be with you, Jane Fadley Phillips

“ The Crider family were our neighbors since I was a child, they bought my great grandparents farm. You couldn't ask for nicer people especially Diana, as a kid I played baseball and rode bikes with Aaron & Stacy and we could always depend on their Mom to have drinks and snacks ready. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the entire family, Diana was a truly good lady. ”
