“ My prayers are with you all in this time of sadness. As grown children we realize what wonderful life lessons our parents taught us, what we will remember and pass on to others. As memories flood our thoughts, we laugh, cry, and cherish that which shaped our lives. Hold fast to each other and to those memories, for they will ease your pain. God will be with you all as you face the days ahead, offering you comfort, peace and love, as you rejoice in the faith of the resurrection.

“ Dear family, may Jehovah God (Psalm 83:18) surround and comfort all of you during this difficult time and may you find comfort in the promise, in Acts 24:15, that there will be a resurrection and that those who are raised up will have the prospect of never again being subject to misery, sickness, or death (Revelation 21:4).
