“ I had the please of caring for Mrs. Bushong and let me just say she was the sweetest. Every morning she always greeted me with a smile and had such a big heart. I loved talking to her and her telling me stories of her love life, family, and friends. During my time with her I had the please of meeting her twin Debbie. She was the best daughter to her mom. I going to miss our talks and that smiling face. Rest Peacefully sweet lady and I just know Bob was waiting with open arms”
