“ My prayers for the family, Elaine was truly a great person. We just bowled against each other "up the ladder" on Sunday and all the laughing and cutting up was so much fun. She was a strong lady, she would tell you just how she felt, nothing held back, I admired her for that. It was an honor to be considered her friend. She is now with Barbara Berryman and her family, probably playing cards, maybe they have duckpin bowling in heaven. You are in a better place now.

“ My deepest sympathy to Elaine's family. I saw Elaine this past Saturday at our VLAS Tour and I am very thankful for that memory and the hug and kiss on the cheek that we shared at seeing each other again. Elaine was a good friend and person. I will miss her very much and remember the good times we had together on the Tours and the fun we had bowling, our bowlers get together dinners and the fun we all had together as friends. In my heart and soul I know she is with her Angels and Jesus and at peace.
