A Favorite Poem by Mary Frye

Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep , for

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there. I did not die.

Please join the family after the service at Riverside Church in Fulks Run,
Virginia for refreshments at 1:00 pm.
