“ I lost my dear husband on Dec. 21, 2018. Our son Jamie and daughter Debbie Porter and myself were right there at his bedside when he passed. We told him we loved him and be at peace! We'll be okay. Soon he was at peace and fell asleep in Jesus! See you soon E.J. when Jesus comes in the clouds to take us to Heaven!

“ Dad loved life. He loved talking to people and it seemed like he could strike up a conversation with about anyone. He built relationships with people all over and from all walks of life. He was very optimistic even when it was difficult for many of us to understand why. His hobbies were fixing things, especially his Metro cars, gardening, running his sawmill, and in recent years recycling cardboard. Dad was always hardworking. He often admonished us that if something was worth doing, we needed to do it right. Dad spent time studying Gods word. He loved his family and relished time with the great grandchildren. He loved to laugh. His favorite song seemed to be "I'm a lonely little petunia in an onion patch ". I'm thankful to have such a remarkable man as my father. You will be missed Dad. I'm glad my children were able to have known him as they attended SVA and in visits since graduating.

“ I had the privilege and pleasure of knowing and working with Mr. EJ and during that time gained much love and respect for one of the most caring and honourable men I have ever met, he truly was a great example for all to follow from his work ethic to his love for his fellow man, his work is now complete and his reward is being reaped, earth's loss is heavens gain, what a wonderful person!!

“ My dad was a very hard worker. He worked up to the last day when he had the stroke. He always looked on the positive side of everything. He said he was just fine for a "kid". I hope to have that attitude in life. He was gathering cardboard around the New Market area and other towns close. He made no money for himself or my mom who worked along with him. The money that was made went to FLAG Camp for kids that Pastor Buzz and his team lead out in. Some extra money went to the SVAE elementary school. He was a good christian man who everyone liked. I can't wait to see him when Jesus returns. Love you dad!!!
