

Eva Shernette (Nesselrodt) Estep

December 29, 1943 - September 26, 2022

The staff at Heishman Funeral Home Inc. sends condolences to the family of Eva Shernette (Nesselrodt) Estep.

After many years of suffering, Eva Estep is finally free of pain. Eva, wife of Austin Eugene Estep (deceased), and cherished mother of Diana Kay Miller, Lisa Michelle Lancaster, and Gregory Scott Estep (deceased) passed away Monday evening, September 26, 2022.

Eva was born December 29, 1943 to John Paul and Elenora Frances Nesselrodt (both deceased) of Jerome, Virginia. She was predeceased by her grandmother, Edna May Funkhouser, infant twin brother and sister, Gaylon Reuben and Gayona Ruby, and another infant sister, Louise Elizabeth. She is survived by her two daughters and four brothers, Gene Allen Nesselrodt, Edward Lee (Bo) Nesselrodt, Paul Leonard Nesselrodt, Dale Martin Nesselrodt, and two grandchildren, Ariel Marie Miller and Logan Slade Lancaster.

Eva was quite the firebrand as is the case for a red head. She was a red head and always a force to be reckoned with. No matter who you were, she always spoke her mind and Heaven help you if you made her mad. Yet she had a kind and compassionate heart, always reminding her children to help and respect others, both those on two legs as well as those on four. She was a protective tiger where her loved ones were concerned and would demonstrate this loyalty without hesitation. Mom and Dad had a unique bond and through thick or thin, this bond was strong for more than 58 years.

Eva will be forever missed by her daughters and brothers but they are grateful she is no longer in pain and is again with her grandmother, her parents, her husband, and her son. We know she is helping to prepare a place for her family to join her again when God decides the time has come.

A graveside service will be at Saint Paul's Lutheran Church Cemetery in Jerome, Virginia on Friday, September 30 at 11:00 am. A memorial of Eva's life will be held immediately following the interment at the Stoney Creek Church of the Brethren (also in Jerome). Pastor Louie Shaffer will officiate. It is hoped that friends and family will attend this memorial and partake in a meal after the interment.

The family will receive friends Thursday, September 29 from 6pm-8pm at Valley Funeral Service in Edinburg.

Please consider making a memorial contribution in Eva's name to an animal shelter of your choice or to Wounded Warriors Project.org.

“Eva, I don't know where to begin with this. You were such a beautiful soul. I met you five years ago, when Ariel and I got married I didn't know then just how much of an impact you'd have on my life. Whether it was your awesome sense of humor, or how you'd listen and give the best advice when I needed it. Ariel and I love you and we miss you.

“Eva, I came into your life when I married Ariel. At that time I never knew just how much of an impact you'd make on my life. We had the best times together, whether it was our sense of humor or even just having a simple conversation. I miss you, your family misses you and we all love you. I'll see you on the other side.

“ I wont forget Eva and I used to go and get flowers and plant them. We shared a lot of laughs. I will remember the good times we had together. She was a good friend and mother-in-law. She always had a great big feast around the holidays and she always wanted me to make baked macaroni and cheese.

“ Dear Family,

I remember as a young girl when Eva would stop by our house with her Avon products and a book to get our order. I ordered quite a few items from her and always looked forward to our visits. Praise the Lord she is no longer in pain. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. May the memories you created together carry you through the difficult days ahead.
