

Evelyn Grace Cooke

November 20, 2010

Evelyn Grace Cooke, 97, of West Chester, Pennsylvania, formerly of Jerome, Virginia passed away peacefully in her home Friday, November 19, after a long illness. She was the wife of the late Edward Charles Cooke with whom she shared 52 years of marriage. Born in Greenpoint, Brooklyn, New York on October 12, 1913, she was the daughter of Samuel Walter and Sarah Louise Vought nee Lobley. She graduated from business school and began work at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company where she was selected to represent the company at the 1939 New York World's Fair. She was a member of Harmonia Chapter #34, Order of the Eastern Star, New York, where she held the office of Worthy Matron, and Mishannock-Sewanna #605, Order of the Eastern Star, New York. She was a member of the Southampton BPOE 1574 Women's Auxiliary, serving a term as Treasurer. Evelyn and Edward resided in Queens, New York; Noyac, Sag Harbor, New York, and Jerome, Virginia. In 2003 Evelyn moved to be with her family in West Chester, Pennsylvania. She was a devoted mother and proud grandmother. She was a Brownie and Girl Scout leader, an active church member participating in various church organizations wherever she lived, the latest being the St. Paul's Sewing Circle. She enjoyed sailing, boating, gardening, crosswords and reading. Evelyn is survived by daughter Louella Vought Goldstein and son-in-law Terry Goldstein of West Chester, Pennsylvania with whom she lived, and granddaughter Jennifer Louise Goldstein of Annapolis, Maryland. She is also survived by her niece Sandra Allison Kroger and her husband

Harry Kroger of Venice, Florida, a great niece, two great nephews, three great-great nieces and seven great-great nephews. Evelyn was preceded in death by her brother Samuel Edward Vought. A committal service will be conducted Tuesday, November 23, 2:00 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Cemetery, Jerome by Pastor Kate Schroeder. Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society. Arrangements by Dellinger Funeral Homes, Inc., Woodstock, Virginia.

“ Dear Family, Hoping and praying that you find peace. It was such a pleasure to know both your mom and dad. They had a zest for life and a spirit of independence. Sharing stories and memories of times gone by was always such a pleasure. Your mom will be greatly missed she had such a wonderful smile . My prayers are with you.
