“Lucy” was so special, I’m going to miss Donna’s posts on FB, of her and her antics. We had a special visit when she was at Greenfield, laughing, being silly, she seemed so happy! How special to be with her husband on his birthday. <3

“ we loved this sweet/ testy/feisty/full of ...and vinegar most days. we shared 2.5 years together. she helped me make pickles,sew on buttons, sing silly songs, fuss at the roosters next door crowing at 11am, watching traffic on the highway most mornings. she made my days exciting and spiritual to say the least. she loved her Donald, her children, her grandchildren, Lovey and God. And when those 2 little girls came to visit it was fun, fun, fun. we always hated to see them go home.

Sally Crack you one in 2 million. I am so glad I got to know you and share many, many times together.

Hug your Donald from all of us.

We love you girl Sandy and Danny Boy
