“ Miss Frances who she was loving thought of. She was one of the sweetest ladies I ever met from a small child up she always had a smile. It was hard to hear of her going home when the last I saw her was still going strong. She always was concerned about others. She and Kenneth raised 4 wonderful young men who we all went to church together. May God give you what you have need of during this time of loss. Love and Prayers, Ellen and Charles Franklin
