“ Donna, Jimmy, and Family, So sorry for your loss. You and your family are in our prayers. We were fortunate to have been raised by strong and loving mothers. Our mothers may have departed this earthly life but never their love nor the lessons and joy they have brought us. Your mother will be remembered in pictures, stories, and memories and by all whose lives she blessed. My mother spoke highly of your mother and father, coming often to her aid when my father became ill (getting groceries, etc.). Thank you for sharing your mother with us. By love, our mothers are remembered and in memory they are still with us. It is hard. Sending our deepest sympathy, Marguerite Long and daughters
