“ Thoughts and prayers surely go to all of the family at this time. It is sorrow for those left behind, but such a comfort that he is now knowing greater joys for which he lived his faithful life. Karen Brooker, Cedar Rapids, IA

“ We think of you in the loss of your husband, brother, father, grandfather, etc. I'm so glad that I saw you briefly when I was home 2 years ago. Some of my childhood memories include going to your place for union meeting and being with you at other meetings. May you know the comfort of the Holy Spirit at this time. With sympathy, Priscilla
