

Geraldine Brain

September 9, 1947 - December 31, 2021

Heaven brought one of its angel's home December 31, 2021. Geraldine (Geri) Brain of Maurertown, VA passed away peacefully in her home with her loving husband by her side. Geri had a 14-year-long battle with Alzheimer's and because of her devoted husband John, and a team of angels over the years, was able to stay home to be cared for and surrounded by her family. Geri met her husband John in the early ~60's and from that day forward they were inseparable, an almost 60-year love affair. Geri was a strong woman of faith and believed we all have an angel that is here for us whenever we need them. Geri's family knows she is now their angel. While Geri's family is happy for her that she has been released to the ""promise"" she spoke of so often they will miss her tremendously here on earth. Geri was a gentle soul who loved deeply. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sibling, aunt, cousin, sister-in-law and friend. Geri was born September 9, 1947 in Hackensack, NJ and is survived by her husband John Brain, two daughters Geri Brown of Maurertown and Laura Plaucher of Florida, her grandchildren Tabitha Jung, Cheyenne Flemming, DJ Flemming, Brianna Flemming and Felicity Brown, her great-grandchildren Levi Myrtle, Leland Myrtle and Leeum Myrtle, Her brother Gerald Strine of Ohio, her dear sister-in-law Joyce Funk of Tucson, Arizona, her cousin and friend Ginnie Beck of Florida and her nieces and nephews Cindy Motz, Brent Gallenberger, David Conrad and Rick Conrad. Geri was pre-deceased by her parents Gerald Strine and Dorothy Strine, her sister Dorothy Gallenberger and her son-in-law Steve Brown. Events Details are pending.

“ I came to know Geri several years ago through the "Our Place" program in Edinburg. She was such a joy to be around. We would engage in activities and loved to see her smile and laugh. At times she thought I was her sister which make things all the better. John was truly devoted to her care. Blessings to you and the family.
