“ My dear Aunt Gloria....you were the life of every party....you will be missed. You were always caring and kind to me. I remember being a little girl and admiring how you wore your long hair in a bun. So what did you do? You fixed my hair like yours and I wore that bun like a crown! And how we all looked forward to Christmas nights at your home with you and Uncle George and all the Molloy clan gathered around. And more recently, dinners at Twin Oaks were never more cheerful than when you arrived, after insisting on driving yourself! Yes, Aunt Gloria, you will be sorely missed. To Jan and her family, thank you for always being there for Gloria and George. They spoke so well of you and your closeness to them. Thank you for caring for Gloria right till the end. I know how much she loved you. Jackie Molloy Igliazzi and Joe Igliazzi
