

Grace Cook

July 24, 1940 - August 9, 2017

Grace Cook, born on July 24, 1940 in Winchester, VA passed away peacefully at the Winchester Medical Center on August 9, 2017. Grace and her husband, Gamaliel, moved from Alexandria, VA to Edinburg upon their retirement. Grace's professional career spanned a variety of areas. She was a clerk at the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles until her retirement in 1995. She was a gifted seamstress and shared her talents as an educator by serving as a sewing instructor for many years. She was devoted to her family and friends; she enjoyed entertaining and everyone was always welcome in her home. Grace was always steadfast and strong in her faith, showing her love of the Lord by example in the way that she lived. She and her husband served as Youth Leaders at First Christian Church, Falls Church and Wakemans Grove Church of the Brethren in Edinburg. She was also a contributing member of the Sisters Fellowship at Wakemans Grove. Grace was a Diabetic for 50+ years and was committed to educating and mentoring newly-diagnosed diabetics in the control of their disease. She shared her knowledge and personal experience in any way that she could to benefit others. She was preceded in death by her parents Treva Sinnett Nesselrodt and Walter Nesselrodt. She is survived by her husband of 58 years, Gamaliel Cook; two daughters, Katherine Cook Dunn and her husband, Brian of Yorktown, VA and Pamela Cook McCubbin of Edinburg, VA; grandchildren Brian Dunn, Jr, Kaitlyn Dunn and Hannah McCubbin. She is also survived by sisters Jean Gambill and Helen Jones of North Augusta, South Carolina. Visitation will take place from 6:00 to 8:00 pm on August 18, 2017 at Wakemans Grove Church of the Brethren. A Celebration of Life service will be held at 11:00 am on August 19, 2017, also at Wakemans Grove Church of the Brethren. In lieu of flowers, memorials in her name can be made to the Wakemans Grove Church Building Fund, 668 Wakemans Grove, Road, Edinburg, VA 22824.
