“ I remember when I was about five years old and Guy was about seventeen. I was wearing bib overalls . He picked me up and hung on a big nail on rafter from my backside and he went out laughing and I was yelling . This was one of my first memory of him. Guy would become my best friend and best uncle. He was a great help at lots of times.

I was so sad to hear of Guy's passing. He was a good friend to my husband Bill. They spent many an evening or day talking up at the shop or down at the house. I don't know what they're found to talk about for hours at a time, but you could always hear them laughing about something. Guy was a sweet and kind person and I know he will be missed so much by his family and friends.
