“ Guy was always kind, he had a big heart, he had a touch of mischief, especially with Dick Snyder. Can remember him putting fire crackers in Dick's mail box on a snowy night. He loved to have fun.

One day after school I was watching Sharon, Phillip, and Dennis. Phil wanted to go out and play with his wagon, I said okay, so he went out and hit himself in the head with a hammer. Of course his head was bleeding, Sharon kept screaming that he was going to die, that got Dennis upset that he wanted to hug on me while I was trying to get Phil calmed down. In walked Guy and Maisel. Guy was do calm, he took control and it seemed everyone started to calm down too.

We sure will miss him and we pray for his family for comforting at this time and through the days ahead.
