

Hannah May Helsley

September 5, 1922 - November 2, 2012

Hannah May Helsley, 90, of Edinburg, died Friday evening in the Skyline Nursing Home, Woodstock.

She was born September 5, 1922, a daughter of the late Nathaniel and Rosie Barb Beedle.

She is survived by daughters, Doris Judd (Ronnie), and Joy M. Holliday (Bud); son, Wayne N. Helsley (Linda), all of Edinburg.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Melvin Helsley; brothers, Arthur Beedle, Martin (Bud) Beedle, and Stanley Beedle; sisters, Ruby Watson, Barbara Mellette; son, Larry Helsley; and grandson, Roger L. Barb, Jr.

In addition to her children, she is survived by brother, Norman Beedle, sister, Stella Barb, both of Basye; 9 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and 4 great-great-grandchildren.

She was a member of Columbia Furnace United Methodist Church where she was a member of the choir, Sunday school teacher and life-long member of the United Methodist Women's group sharing the love of the Lord.

Her home was always open to those needing a helping hand. She loved flowers, birds, and crocheting. Her family was close by and she enjoyed sharing her life with them.

A memorial service will be conducted Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. at Columbia Furnace United Methodist Church by Rev. J. Robert Berghuis. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Columbia Furnace United Methodist Church, c/o Teddy Mumaw, 375 Foltz Road, Edinburg 22824.

The family would like to thank the staff of Skyline Nursing Home for all their care.

The family will receive friends anytime at home.
