“ I send my sympathy to the Rhinehart family. I worked with Barbara many years ago at Sibley Hospital in DC.as a brand new nurse, I consider her my nursing mentor. I strived to be just like her. I never had the opportunity to meet her husband. I so wish I could come to the service on Saturday but I am committed to teach a class in Charlottesville that day. I send my friendship and have the Rhinehart family in my prayers. Leslie Ney Harrisonburg, VA

“ Butch was one of the most caring people I have ever met. He was a great support and gave great advice to me when my brother went missing. He helped support me through a very rough time until we discovered the terrible result of our search. He also tried to help me when our van which held all of Patrick's college equipment "threw a rod" on our way to JMU in Harrisonburg. I am sure he had a few good laughs at my various car related adventures including the infamous truck caravan from Santa Rosa to San Diego. He was in the background but someone you could always count on to be there when he was needed.

“ Butch and I were classmates from the first through the seventh grade at New Market School. Occasionally, I saw him at NM School reunions after that. I remember him to be a "sweet" boy in grade school and the most handsome boy in the class. He left this earth much too soon and I know he will be missed by his beloved wife, Barbara, daughter and granddaughters. Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your husband, father and grandfather.

“ Butch and I grew up together in the Massanutten Mt., East of New Market, during our grade school years. We lived about 1/4 mile (thru the woods) from each other and spent a lot of time making roads all over the mt. with my old '47 jeep. When we were not pushing over trees, we did a lot of squirrel hunting with his trusty dog "Fuzzy". After going to different high schools, and him moving to Northern Va., I guess our paths didn't cross as often, but our friendship never wavered. After we both retired, our paths crossed again when he and Barbara came to the Valley to stay at their farm. It was always great to see them both here together, and Lil and I will certainly miss that. REST IN PEACE DEAR FRIEND. Bob & Lil Hughes
