“ I feel lucky enough to have been able to call Hayley a friend. In high school, I considered her a sister. Every weekend was spent together and for a couple of summers her family was gracious enough to put up with me for many days and nights at a time! Unfortunately, we drifted apart after graduation but I was incredibly happy that we remained in contact with one another. She was an incredible mother and a loving friend. I think one of the things I am going to miss the most about her is her free spirit and contagious laugh. She was an incredible soul, and understood what life was about and I truly can't wait to see her again. I hope her family knows how much she loved them! I love you, Hayley, all ways, always!
